Theme: "Living in the Overflow"

Dear Sisters,

An Early welcome to our third year of Sister to Sister! Work was begun for this year by our dedicated team soon after last April's gathering. We look forward to a spirit-filled worship followed by a delicious catered luncheon!

We decided on our theme after talking with our speaker, the Rev. Janelle Beiler. She will challenge each of us to live our best lives by knowing that we are loved by God and that we can live in the overflow of that love.

Please know that your 2017 prayer requests were prayed for and that we hope you will come and share prayer cards with us again this year.

In the meantime and always sisters, here is our hope and prayer for each of you this year: May God, through our Lord Jesus, become not only your Savior, but your friend. May His love permeate your words, thoughts and deeds. Know that you are loved beyond measure and that you are a treasure to Him.

With Love to You All,

Your St. John's Sisters in Christ

OUR SPEAKER

Rev. Dr. Janelle Beiler

Janelle is an ordained minister in the Church of the Nazarene!

She is a licensed counselor at Life Mark in Salisbury!

She is also a Pediatric Bereavement Counselor, a wife, and a mom! She is passionate about embracing brokenness and meeting people where they are and pointing them to Christ!

Janelle has blessed our St. John's women with two in-house retreats. In 2016 she spoke with us about setting appropriate, Christ-centered boundaries. She returned in 2017 to expand upon this theme. Women were enthusiastic and absorbed as she spoke on both occasions.

We believe that Sister to Sister III will offer our guests the same blessing! We pray that your heart's needs will be touched by God's grace and understanding as she speaks at St. John's on April 14, 2018.

OUR MUSICIAN

Mrs. Joy Slavens

Joy, our Assistant Music Director, has been responsible for the musical arrangement for Sister to Sister I, II, and III.

She is not only a blessing to St. John's but has reached into communities with her harp ensemble, "Expressions of Joy", with several yearly concerts.

Her passion for music has led her to create and perform her own unique arrangements of new and familiar pieces. It has also motivated her to compose and publish two Christmas books, two solos, and a book of Lenten and Easter hymns for harp. Joy teaches piano and harp to over 40 students.

May hearts be touched with God's inspiration as Joy brings music to us on April 14, 2018
